UNSC MAC PLATFORMS

The UNSC employs multiple types of orbital defense platforms, ranging from unmanned weapon satellites to large stations equipped with capital-scale magnetic accelerator cannons (MACs). Those stationed above the planet of Reach were among the most powerful ever built, with rapid-fire MACs powered by ground-based reactors. The contents of this boxed set can be used by UNSC players to expand their Halo: Fleet Battles force with four devastating MACs with which to destroy Covenant vessels. Also included in the box are Formation Bases and Ship Overlay Sheets for all models.
